SCS Student Code of Conduct

At Saskatoon Christian School, the students, staff and parents will grow in faith and knowledge of Jesus Christ. We claim Christ as Lord of our lives, which is why our code of conduct is based on discipleship to Christ in our whole life. Christ's work in us will be demonstrated through a deeply loving, obedient relationship with God, and through service to others as evidenced in these ways:

- following Jesus' example by
 - showing respect and giving dignity to every person
 - using opportunities to build each other up
 - see Romans 12: 9-21 and Genesis 1:26, 27
- living in obedience to God by
 - accepting biblical guidance from parents, teachers and peers
 - refraining from the unlawful use of drugs, alcohol, and cigarettes
 - using wise judgment in the exercise of personal freedom
 - keeping dating relationships God-centered
 - affirming that sex outside of marriage is a sin
 - respecting ourselves and others by dressing modestly
 - obeying the laws of our country
 - speaking in a way that edifies others
 - see I Corinthians 6:19
- growing in commitment, knowledge, and wisdom by
 - searching out God's perfect plan for our lives
 - taking responsibility for our personal learning
 - exercising our talents with a positive attitude
 - using our time and resources responsibly
 - participating actively in classes, chapels, and school events
 - see I Corinthians 14:40
- learning by
 - working to develop and build loving relationships with students, staff, and parents
 - being honest in our words and work, giving credit where it is due
 - see Psalm 1:1-3, Proverbs 12:22 and 16:3
- ministering by
 - serving the school and wider community
 - acting as ambassadors of God everywhere we go
 - taking the initiative to meet the needs of others
 - see Philippians 2:1-18
- proclaiming the Gospel of the Kingdom of God by
 - telling of God's work in the community and beyond
 - praying
 - studying God's word and applying it in every aspect of life
 - see Psalm 119 and I Thessalonians 5:17
