

Saskatoon Society for Christian Education, Inc. (SSCE)

Proxy Form – Spring 2019

Purpose of Proxy Form

The purpose of a proxy form is for a member to delegate their voting power to another Society member when they themselves are unable to vote in person. The person that is appointed is called a “proxy” and the person designating him or her is called a “principal”. The proxy has the full voting privileges and so it is important that the principal communicate his or her wishes regarding voting to the person appointed as a proxy. (Definition adapted from Wikipedia.)

Directions for using the Proxy Form

1. Contact a Member who is to attend the Society meeting in person and who you trust to vote on your behalf.
2. Complete the form included below, including your name (as the undersigned Member), the name of your proxy (as your agent), date and sign it.
3. Ensure that membership status is updated for both yourself and the person that you are appointing as your proxy.
4. Submit the completed proxy form to the registration table just prior to the Membership meeting.
5. To check your membership status or for any related questions, please email board@saskatoonchristianschool.ca
